

Darkness in my years
Didn't see nothing that would comfort my fears
I was led astray
And kept from the one and only true way
Are you out there?
I heard that you would care
I could hear a voice
That offered me more than just a choice
I followed him
And once and for all delivered of my sin
Your out there I know you are
I look up and you're not that far
So I keep going on
And keep my eyes up towards the son
Satisfied with my choice I know that I have won.
