To The Faithful Supporters of the American Indian Christian Mission:

I am so thankful that God has blessed us with people like you and that He has blessed us with resources to continue to Evangelize and Equip Native Americans for Christ! The AICM has withstood the storm, and God is continuing to bless us through prayers and finances. You are such an intricate part of this mission. Your faithfulness through prayer has given us so much encouragement through the past fifteen months. We all have many things to be thankful for.

As Thanksgiving and the birth of the Christ child approach, we want to let you know how thankful we are to be serving this great mission that was started over forty one years ago. We are continuing to live out God's vision for this ministry each day. The spiritual climate of the students is incredible. They are growing in the LORD and serving God through a variety of ways. Many children that call this home are living examples of what it means to sacrifice for the sake of the cause! As supporters, you have much to be proud of with the students and the staff that you support through prayers and monies. As Executive Director, I want to personally thank you for all you do and know that you are indeed appreciated and prayed for.

Please continue to pray for the children and their families. They are the reason why we are here. Also, continue to pray for the staff of the AICM. They need your prayers as they are in the trenches working everyday to further these kids and grow them up in their relationship with Jesus. I would also ask that you continue to pray for our finances. We are being the best stewards of God's money. Pray that God would continue to provide for His kids.

Please feel free to stop by our website at www.aicm.org or check out our vision and how we're doing at www.nehemiahproject.wordpress.com. We'd love to hear from you!
