Desired

Have bus or truck driving experience with CDL (however, we are willing to do training)

Some ministry / mission's experience

Degree from a Bible college or other ministry training

Experience working with children (ages: 5 to 16)

Objective

To bring the gospel to children and families on the Fort Apache Reservation (bringing the hope of Christ to a place of much hopelessness) and to inform Apache youth about the other ministries that AICM offers and/or our partnering church offers (like: The White Mountain Apache Christian Church and Cibecue Christian Church).

Supervision

Responsible to and functions under the direction of the Operations/HR Director

Evaluation

Will be evaluated on an annual basis

Duties and Responsibilities

- Drive the ACC buses to many locations on the Fort Apache Reservation as scheduled. Pick up kids in the chosen neighborhoods and return them home after the program (lesson & play time).
- Program: provide Biblical teaching for children on the Reservation using Bible stories, songs, etc. Also, provide games, toys, sports equipment and crafts for kids to use for the play time that follows the Bible lesson. Age range: 5 to 16 years old. Number of kids: varies, usually 15 to 35.
- Prepare lessons that you and your spouse will teach on the Reservation (teach during the school year).
- Prepare for and go to special events like the Christmas parade or distributions on the reservation.
- Make sure that the buses are clean before any trips, that they have the proper fluid levels, and fuel need and report any mechanical problems to the Office Manager. Make sure that the license and registration is up to date on all ACC buses.
- Make sure that the buses are well supplied for trips (toys, snacks & craft materials). Also make sure there are brochures and flyer on board that talk about the other ministries of AICM like: our boarding school, summer camps and HS retreats. Make sure that these are distributed at the end of the play time at the sites you go to on the Reservation. Also give out the brochure that gives information about other ministries that we work with on the Reservation (like the White Mountain Apache Christian Church & the "Kennel" – a Christian youth center).
- Take Ministry Teams onto the Reservation and help them as need. They will be teaching lessons that they have prepared and play games with the kids after the lessons (most teams come in summer).

- Communicate with the Ministry Team Coordinator regarding scheduling. Keep a calendar with names of the church teams that are scheduled, date of arrival, number of team members expected and what they want to do: go to different locations or one location to do a VBS program.
- Accept any additional responsibilities or modifications to current responsibilities that is necessary for the successful operation of AICM and/or the ACC ministry.

Schedule: Days varies - Time: usually leave AICM around 2:30pm to meet kids after they get out of school.
