

AICM Summer Internship

Purpose:

- AICM is looking for passionate individuals to partner with our full time staff serving wherever needed. Summer interns have the unique opportunity to work, minister, and serve in a cross cultural environment. We are seeking individuals who are committed to following the Lord, wanting to grow, willing to serve, and have a desire to see lives transformed by the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Duties:

- Guiding summer work/ministry teams by assisting them in getting settled in, showing them around campus, explaining the ministry AICM does for the Native Americans we serve, giving an overview of life on the Reservation. And going over the dangers on our campus and on the Reservation.
- Debriefing work/ministry teams before leaving dorms to do work projects or outreach on the Reservation and answer any questions they may have.
- Lead devotional or prayer time as needed.
- Debriefing work/ministry teams on their experiences and keeping a journal of each team's overall experience.
- Extending hospitality to summer work/ministry teams by stocking supplies (such as toilet paper, soap, paper towels, ect.) and keeping your assigned dorm clean, swept, mopped, and organized at all times.
- Keep linens washed, folded, and put away
- Assist AICM staff as needed with kitchen duty, maintenance, or any other service that may be needed.

Service dates:

- Internship orientation will be on 06/01/2019 at the AICM campus.
- Internship exit interviews will be on 08/03/2019. (exit interviews may be flexible on date)

Work hours:

- Like the rest of the AICM staff, Monday through Friday you will have to be flexible and on call at all times. There will be scheduled downs for physical, mental and spiritual rest.

Supervision:

- All interns will be working with the Team Coordinator, Maintenance Director and Kitchen Manager but will ultimately report to the Operations Director.

Requirements:

- Must have responded to the Gospel of Christ Jesus by asking for forgiveness of your sin, turning from your sin, making Jesus Lord and Savior of your life, being baptized, filled with the Holy Spirit, and walking out your salvation daily.
- Must agree with AICM's statement of faith.
- Must faithfully attend a church with a similar statement of faith as AICM.
